millennials rising the next pdf

In their 2007 book, authors Junco and Mastrodicasa expanded on the work of William Strauss and Neil Howe to include research-based information about the personality profiles of millennials, especially as it relates to higher education. They conducted a large-sample (7,705) research study of college students. They found that Next Generation college students, born between 1983â€“1992, were ...

Millennials - Wikipedia

Generations, like people, have personalities, and Millennials â€” the American teens and twenty-somethings who are making the passage into adulthood at the start of a new millennium â€” have begun to forge theirs: confident, self-expressive, liberal, upbeat and open to change. They are more ...

Millennials: Confident. Connected. Open to Change | Pew

Racially diverse, economically stressed and politically liberal, Millennials are building their own networks through social media â€” rather than through political parties, organized religion or marriage. Half now call themselves political independents, the highest share of any generation.

Pew Research Center surveys consistently show that not all religious â€œnonesâ€• are nonbelievers. In fact, the majority of Americans without a religious affiliation say they believe in God.

U.S. Public Becoming Less Religious | Pew Research Center

Overview. Since 2006, blogging has dropped among teens and young adults while simultaneously rising among older adults. As the tools and technology embedded in social networking sites change, and use of the sites continues to grow, youth may be exchanging â€”macro-bloggingâ€™ for microblogging with status updates.

Social Media and Young Adults | Pew Research Center

The Christian share of the U.S. population is declining, while the number of U.S. adults who do not identify with any organized religion is growing, according to an extensive new survey by the Pew Research Center. Moreover, these changes are taking place across the religious landscape, affecting all ...
