Crochet (English: / k r oŠ Ê Ê f eÉ /; French:) is a process of creating fabric by interlocking loops of yarn, thread, or strands of other materials using a crochet hook. The name is derived from the French term crochet, meaning 'small hook'. These are made of materials such as metal, wood, or plastic and are manufactured commercially and produced in artisan workshops.

It's a bit funny that an octopus was the first project I made together with my crochet guru Randi and it seemed so complicated at the time. Now, that I've gotten a bit better at crocheting I decided to give something back to the society and make a few octopuses for these little babies, who have been born prematurely and I strongly encourage any crocheter to do the same.
