News from Nowhere (1890) is a classic work combining utopian socialism and soft science fiction written by the artist, designer and socialist pioneer William Morris. It was first published in serial form in the Commonweal journal beginning on 11 January 1890. In the novel, the narrator, William Guest, falls asleep after returning from a meeting of the Socialist League and awakes to find himself ...

Left-wing socialism equals “the poorer you are, the more rights and privileges you have” (e.g., free health care from government programs and free legal representation). In other words, socialism is the opposite of the real world in which people who have more money usually have more rights and privileges by default (because they can pay for them).
